Reserve account target level triggers

If on the immediately succeeding quarterly payment date the rated notes will be redeemed in full, zero, else if the delinquent mortgage receivables trigger is not broken, the target level will be (a) until (b1) is reached 0.60% of the aggregate principle amount outstanding on the rated notes on the closing date or (b) the higher of (b1) 1.60% of the aggregate principle amount outstanding on the rated notes on the quarterly calculation date and (b2) 0.60% of the aggregate principle amount outstanding on the rated notes on closing date.
